Your Honor,

The above-named defendant appeared before the Honorable Richard L. Voorhees, U.S. District Judge, on 9/20/2004 and was sentenced to a total of one-hundred eighty (180) months imprisonment and five (5) years of supervised release following conviction for Possession with Intent to Distribute Cocaine Base and Aiding and Abetting the Same, and Possession of a Firearm During and in Relation to a Crime of Violence or a Drug Trafficking Crime and Aiding and Abetting the same.

Since the defendant's release on 2/2/2018, the defendant has submitted negative urine samples and satisfied all other obligations to date.

The defendant has requested permission to travel to Barbados to meet with his father from 12/4/18-12/10/2018. Since residing in the RRC, the defendant has developed his professional interests in property management through employment with MW Properties of Charlotte. The defendant's father owns numerous properties in the United States and one property in Barbados, which he is seeking to sign over to Mr. Dandridge. In order for this transaction to take place, the defendant will need to meet with his father and his attorney in Barbados.

Based on the defendant's compliance to date and his career interests, the Probation Office has no objection and recommends the defendant's request be considered by the Court. If granted, the defendant has indicated that he will not travel again during his term of supervised release.
